

Springfield Soccer Club Alumni Update-Part 1 September 30, 2008

With the pleasant cool nights of autumn comes the regular season of college soccer. So far this season SSC Alumni have been making some noise all over the country.

Patrick Carver-Ranked #9 nationally, the Emory Eagles (GA) are off to a perfect 8-0-0 record in 2008. They are buoyed by the offensive prowess of last year's UAA Player of the Year Patrick Carver. Carver has started all 7 games, currently has 7 goals, and is leading the team with 18 points scored this season. He put in the game winning free kick in the Eagles recent victory over Greensboro College (N.C.). The Eagle next match is against Oglethorpe.

Katie Brooks- Katie and William Jewell are having trouble copying last year's form with a current record of 5-3-0. Katie is now a senior and a captain of the squad. Katie and the Cardinals will try push on from their 3-1 win over Avila when they take on Culver-Stockton College on October 7th.

Tyler Kutz- The #14 ranked Parkland College Cobras (IL) have also started their season with a bang. Goalkeeper Kutz has lead them to a 11-1-2 record so far this season including 6 shutouts. With a GAA of .390 Kutz is ranked sixth among all NJCAA goalkeepers this year. Kutz and the Cobras will take on Heartland away from home in their next match.

Jessica McCutcheon- McCutcheon and the Hillcats are off to a great start this season with a 7-1-0 record. The Hillcats are currently two spots outside the top 25 in the NAIA. McCutcheon is the goalkeeper earning the most minutes thus far into the season playing 180 with 2 starts and 3 appearances. Her GAA is .480 and she has registered a shutout in one of her two wins. Jessica and the Hillcats face off next against Wayland Baptist at home on October 2nd.

Brian Fishback- Fishback and the Greyhounds of the University of Indianapolis have a record of 4-3-2. Fishback has started every game for the Greyhounds this year. In those 9 games he has had 4 assists. With a recent win over Drury. Fishback and his team will be facing off against Saginaw Valley away from home.
